FOREWORD

These Initial Teacher Education course manuals were developed by a team consisting of members from Colleges of Education and four universities namely the University of Ghana, Kwame Nkrumah University of Science and Technology, University of Education, Winneba, and University for Development Studies. This team was originally constituted by the National Council for Tertiary Education (now the Ghana Tertiary Education Commission) in 2019 to support the delivery of the new B.Ed. curriculum with assistance from T-TEL and UK Aid. The revision, finalization and printing of these manuals took place in 2021 with support from T-TEL and Mastercard Foundation.

The course manuals have been produced for use as general guides for the delivery of the new four-year B.Ed. curriculum in Colleges of Education in collaboration with their affiliated universities. They are designed to support student teachers, tutors, and lecturers in delivering a complete B.Ed. course for training student teachers which meets the requirements of the National Teachers' Standards, enabling them to teach effectively in basic schools.

The first section of the manuals is focused on the course information and vision for the B.Ed. curriculum. The second section presents the course details, goal for the subject or learning area, course description, key contextual factors as well as core and transferable skills and cross-cutting issues, including equity and inclusion. The third section is a list of course learning outcomes and their related learning indicators. The fourth section presents the course content which is broken down into units for each week, the topic and sub-strands and their related teaching and learning activities to achieve the learning outcomes and the teaching and learning strategies. This is followed by course assessment components in section five. Each manual contains a list of required reading and references as well as teaching and learning resources. The final section presents course related professional development for tutors and lecturers to be able to use each section of the manual.

Field instructions to guide Supported Teaching in School are integrated into the course manuals to provide the student teacher with guidance in developing teaching throughout the entire period of study to be able to meet the requirements of the National Teachers' Standards (NTS) and the National Teacher Education Curriculum Framework (NTECF). To ensure maximum benefit the course manuals should be used in addition to other resources such as the NTS, NTCEF, National Teacher Education & Assessment Policy and the National Teacher Education Gender Equality and Social Inclusion (GESI) Strategy and Action Plan.. This will help to ensure that student teachers' learning is integrated within the wider teacher education policy framework.

Director General, Ghana Tertiary Education Commission

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The course manuals were developed through the collaborative efforts of a team of individuals from Colleges of Education, University of Ghana, Kwame Nkrumah University of Science and Technology, University of Education, Winneba, and University for Development Studies. They were produced in association with the Ghana Tertiary Education Commission of the Ministry of Education, Ghana.

A participatory team approach was used to produce this set of resources for tutors/lecturers, mentors, and student teachers. We are grateful to the specialists who contributed their knowledge and expertise.

Special thanks to Professor Jophus Anamuah-Mensah - T-TEL Key Advisor, Dr. Eric Daniel Ananga - T-TEL Key Advisor for Curriculum reform and Beatrice Noble-Rogers who provided key editorial, review and content input and facilitated the process of drafting and finalising the course manual.

Patricia Appiah-Boateng and Gameli Samuel Hahomene, served as typesetting and formatting coordinators and designed and produced the illustrations, tables, and other graphics which appear in the pages. They spent time and effort designing and redesigning the graphic layout and producing the camera-ready copy resulting in a set of materials that are easy to use, read, and reference.

Thanks also goes to all T-Tel staff members who worked to support production of these course manuals, particularly Beryl Opong-Agyei and Gideon Okai. Their frankness and co-operative attitude complimented the team approach used to produce this manual.

We are indebted to the Ministry of Education and the Ghana Tertiary Education Commission (GTEC) for the general support and specific helpful advice provided during production of the course manuals. Recognition and thanks must go to Chief Technical Advisor for T-TEL and Policy Advisor to the National Education Reform Secretariat, Akwasi Addae-Boahene, Prof. Mohammed Salifu, the Director General of GTEC and Mr. Jerry Sarfo the coordinator for the colleges of education, who in diverse ways supported during the course manual writing workshops.

In addition to all the staff who participated visibly in the development of these materials we would like to acknowledge all those people from the many colleges of education and universities in which we have worked who have, directly or indirectly, shared their views on the curriculum with us.

INTRODUCTION TO COURSE MANUALS

Welcome to this B.Ed. Course manual.

Following the accreditation of the B.Ed. by the national accreditation Board with its recognition as a world class teacher education curriculum, the decision was taken to support effective implementation through the development of course manuals. The course manuals provide tutors and lecturers with the materials necessary to support teaching each of the B.Ed. courses. The manuals adhere directly to, and emphasise, the principles and standards set out in the NTS, NTECF and in the B.Ed. and will help ensure operationalising the Government's teacher education reform Policy.

The manuals serve the following purposes:

- they are the key educational agreements between the training institution and the student teachers. In this way student teachers know what the expectations are for them and for the training they will receive.
- they lay out the course outcomes, content, strategies, and assessment, thereby providing direction to and consistency in training and B.Ed. implementation among tutors across the country.
- they are explicit documents that provide other institutions with information on which to base transfer/ articulation decisions.

Specifically, they also:

- support coherent lesson planning and teaching which will enable student teachers to achieve the NTS and become good teachers who ensure all pupils' learning whilst offering tutors the flexibility for adaptation for local needs and contexts.
- Provide a lesson by lesson overview of the course, building on and developing the material in the course specifications.
- Inform tutors, student teachers and others working with student teachers about:
 1. What is to be taught and why.
 2. how it can be taught.
 3. how it should be assessed.
- Provide opportunities for student teachers to develop and apply knowledge during supported teaching in school, creating a strong bond between learning in school and in the training institution.
- Reflect the stage of student teacher development, set out in the model for progress across the four years of the B.Ed.
- Can be used as self-study tools by student teachers.
- Ensure that all information necessary to inform teacher training is in one place (serves as reference document).
- The manuals are the basis of the codes and university professional development sessions to ensure Principals, tutors, lecturers and heads of department are fully familiar with the details of: courses, outcomes, content, approaches, assessments and lessons.

Who are course manuals for:

- College of Education Tutors
- Teacher Education University Lecturers
- Student Teachers
- Mentors and Lead Mentors
- All Those with An Interested In Teacher Education.

USING THIS MANUAL

Writers of the manuals engaged widely with colleagues in each subject area at each stage of development. Besides, writers envisaged themselves in varied contexts as they wrote, to suggest methodologies and strategies for teaching the strands which would ensure student teachers are enabled to achieve the learning outcomes. In view of our commitment to creativity, problem solving, collaboration and to lifelong learning, we expect that individual tutors will “own” their manuals and become user-developers. Lessons in the manuals will be strands for weekly Pd meetings where tutors/lecturers will situate the lessons in the contexts of their colleges and their student teachers, to maximize the benefits.

It is also expected that tutors will model the best pedagogic practices for student teachers. Key among such practices is the communication of the importance of having a personal teaching philosophy. We expect that tutors and lecturers will explicitly communicate their personal teaching philosophies to their student teachers during the first meeting of every course. In preparation for this, we suggest you set out your personal teaching philosophy and how it will be demonstrated in your teaching using, or adapting, the sample sentence introductions below.

Resources for Course Manual Writing

- Soft copies of the CWG, New Four-Year B.Ed. Curriculum introduction
- Soft and hard copies of the course specifications for the subject for year one and two
- Soft and hard Course Manual Writing Guide (CMWG)
- Relevant subject texts

Target Audience

- College of Education Tutors
- Teacher Education University Lecturers
- Student Teachers
- Mentors

The purpose of course manuals

- To provide a lesson by lesson overview of the course, building on, adapting and developing the material in the course specifications
- To provide a resource to support professional development sessions for tutors/lecturers on how to plan for and teach courses from the New Four-Year B.Ed. Curriculum
- To inform tutors /lecturers, student teachers and others working with student teachers about:
 - what is to be taught and why
 - how it can be taught
 - how it should be assessed
- To support consistency in the implementation of the New Four-Year B.Ed. across institutions who train teachers
- To ensure that all training information on skills, processes, and other information necessary to perform the teaching task are together in one place.
- To operationalize the Teacher Education Reform Policy; the requirements of the NTS & NTECF and the Four-Year B.Ed.

Guiding principles of course manual writing

1. They are written with the learner, the student teacher, in mind: what they will be able to cope with and only include what student teachers need to know, understand, be able to do and be as a basic school teacher
2. They take in to consideration the learner's, the student teacher's, context and possible barriers to, and enablers for, learning
3. They are written with the tutors /lecturers who are going to teach the course in mind. Tutors must be able to adapt and develop the plans in course manuals to fit the context they are teaching in and to support their teaching
4. They are aligned to the key principles and practices of the Teacher Education Reform Policy: the NTS, the NTECF and the New Four-Year B.Ed.
5. They are written to provide opportunities for student teachers to develop and apply knowledge during supported teaching in school
6. They are written to reflect the stage of student teacher development, set out in the model for progress in the New Four-Year B.Ed.
7. They are written to support progress in student teacher learning, including building on prior learning from the previous programme or course/s and supporting progress to the next course.
8. They are to be used as self-study tools.
9. They are written to have the following characteristics: easy to read; uses active voice and avoids jargon; uses bullet points to offset text; uses images

What a teacher educator needs to know, understand and use to inform what they do

- The aims and structure of the education system and Education strategic Plan
- The Basic School Curriculum
- The Inclusion Policy
- The teacher education system: The National Teacher's Standards, the vision for teacher education and the core principles of the New Four-Year B.Ed.
- Andragogy, effective methods and practices for teaching adult learners
- Assessment Literacy. Assessment for, of and as learning -Educative Assessment

In doing this to instil in new teachers the Nation's core values of honesty, integrity, creativity and responsible citizenship and to achieve inclusive, equitable, high quality education for all learners. Course Learning outcomes 6. Course content 7. Teaching and learning strategies 8. Course Assessment components 9. Reading and reference list 10. Handouts, power points and other resources for lessons 11. Plans for each lesson in the semester | | | | |
| A. Course information | | | | |
| 1. Goal for the Subject or Learning Area | | | | |
| This can be found in subject goal document. It should be a short statement which captures what new teachers will know, understand and be able to do in this subject at the end of their training. This statement should be linked to achieving the vision for the curriculum. | | | | |
| 2. Key contextual factors | | | | |
| This can be found in the course specification. It should address what needs are to be considered to reflect the Ghanaian context at local and national levels. It includes potential knowledge and skills gaps and any specific: gender, cultural, linguistic, conceptual, infrastructural issues, for example, that might be barriers to learning for student teachers and eventually basic school children? E.g. issues of subject related bias that need addressing. Potential barriers to learning must be explicitly addressed to enable student teachers to achieve the learning outcomes. | | | | |
| 3. Course Description | | | | |
| This can be found in the course specification. This brief statement should provide a clear understanding of what studying this course involves, what student teachers will get out of studying this course. | | | | |
| 4. Core and transferable skills and cross cutting issues, including equity and inclusion | | | | |
| This can be found in the course specification. Which core and transferable skills or cross cutting issues will be applied or developed through this course? This needs to be made explicit to student teachers. Are there specific issues to do with equity and inclusion which must be addressed so that all student teachers can fully take part? For example, issues related to gender and mathematics or science. | | | | |
| 5. Course Learning Outcomes | | | 6. Learning indicators | |
| These are in the course specification. The course learning outcomes should specify the expectations of what the student teachers will know, understand and be able to do at the end of the course not what student teachers will do on the course. They must be appropriate and realistic to the learner's abilities, experience, the identified level of the course and content . They must be measurable – allowing assessment of student teacher achievement | | | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Measurable/assessable/observable performances that provide evidence of learning or other changes taking place in student teachers' behaviour which demonstrate that they have met the learning outcome/s. • What the student teacher will need to do to show they have achieved the learning outcome. (in an inclusive lesson, this should vary and be responsive to student teacher's individual characteristic) | |

| | | | |
|---|--------------|---------------------------|---|
| 7. Course content | | | |
| In the course specification. This should provide an outline of the academic and / or practical content of the course. It should be clear how this content relates to the achievement of the intended learning outcomes. The name of each unit in the course should be briefly set out – the name should make it clear what the unit is about. | | | |
| Unit | Topic | Sub-topic (If any) | Teaching and learning activities to achieve the learning outcome |
| 8. Course Assessment Components | | | |
| In the course specification. The NTS and the NTECF require a move away from largely examination-based assessment to strategies to enable assessment of student teachers' skills, knowledge and understanding against the learning outcomes and through these the against the NTS | | | |
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • There should be a maximum of 3 assessment components per 3 credit-course; to avoid over loading student and tutors/ lecturers • The learning outcomes to be assessed by each assessment component should be identified. • Each assessment component should explicitly reference the NTS or aspects of the NTS it will assess. • Each assessment component should include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ The category or type, for example: written, coursework or practical, teaching, examination, collaborative project or presentation, poster, TLM ○ The type of assessment: of, for and /or as. ○ An indication of the size of each assessment component (e.g. duration of exams, word limit of written submissions, length of presentations; whether presentations have an individual or group etc.). ○ The weighting of each assessment component should be expressed as a % of total course mark (overall in each course: 60% continuous assessment of course work, 40% examination of course work). • Each assessment should be manageable and relevant to supporting the student teachers' development. The guidance on assessing student teachers from the NTS, the NTECF the CWG and the New Four Year B.Ed. should be used. | | | |
| 9. Teaching and learning strategies | | | |
| Detail in this section should show how the total learning hours will be used to achieve the intended learning outcomes, to provide a guide to the teaching and learning strategies to be used. Each teaching strategy should be selected as most appropriate to achieving the learning outcomes. This may include team teaching or additional tutors. As stated in the B.Ed. experiential learning and interactive teaching approaches are encouraged | | | |
| 10. Required Reading and reference list | | | |
| one or two compulsory texts which must be made available to the student teachers and a SHORT list of 5 relevant references. These lists should be annotated with the key value of each text. Use APA style of writing. | | | |
| 11. Teaching and Learning Resources | | | |
| Instructional resources required to support learning during the course e.g.: TLMs, lab and workshop equipment, videos, projectors | | | |
| Course related professional development for tutors/ lecturers | | | |
| This is not included the course manual but professional development needs must be identified to ensure all tutors / lecturers are prepared to teach the course identify any specific topics or issues which may be challenging for tutors / lecturers. | | | |

| Points on inclusivity, equity and addressing diversity | | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> You need to represent and address diversity in your lesson-plan. Are the multiple diversity issues (see diversity wheel) ? How would these issues be addressed with student teachers during activities for both their own learning and the learning of the students they will teach? How are issues of diversity (equity and inclusion) addressed in your lesson plan so that student teachers can see diversity modelled during this teaching and learning activity? How are issues of diversity (equity and inclusion) addressed in your lesson plan so that student teachers can learn how to address it with the students they will teach? For example: gender stereotype issues related to: PE, literacy and language, science and mathematics. | | | | | | |

| 1. Goal for the Subject or Learning Area | | | | |
| The literacy studies program is designed to train effective teachers who are able to support all learners in communicating effectively through speaking, listening, reading and writing so that they can achieve success in education, develop into lifelong learners and improve literacy for all of Ghana's children. | | | | |
| 2. Course Description | | | | |
| This is a core course that introduces all student teachers to the English language. The course comprises two major areas namely, introduction to phonetics and phonology and introduction to grammar. The purpose of phonetics and phonology is to equip the student teacher with the necessary tools of English language sounds and rules to enable him/her effectively receive and produce English texts. The focus then will be on the identification and production of vowels and consonants. Phonemic awareness and phonics will also be covered. The purpose of the second part, grammar, is to equip the student teacher with the necessary grammatical rules for effective text construction. Coverage of content includes word classes, the sentence, spelling and punctuation rules. The details will equip student teachers with phonic skills to enable them to teach their pupils phonic knowledge and how to apply this in their reading and writing; understand the phonics of L2 and to know the differences that and the L1, so as to assist learners overcome problems they may encounter during the dual language learning process: use variety of (language) assessment modes to support (language) learning. Discussion, demonstration, modelling, speech practice, text analysis, group based projects, problem-solving, text reviews will be used as modes of assessment of learning, as learning and for learning (NTECF P26; NTS2c:13; NTS3k:14). | | | | |
| 3. Key contextual factors | | | | |
| 1. Per the Language-in-education policy of Ghana English is the medium of instruction from Primary 4 to JHS 3 and beyond and as a subject of study from Primary 1 to JHS 3 and beyond. Consequently, student teachers have varying exposure to and competence in English language. Therefore, this course, Introduction to English, is to serve as a remedial for student teachers with a limited exposure to the English language and a consolidating course for student teachers who have had a fair amount of exposure to the language. 2. Although teachers may have knowledge in the subject content, many of them lack the knowledge and skills to handle effectively learners with special needs in the English Language classroom. | | | | |
| 4. Core and transferable skills and cross cutting issues, including equity and inclusion | | | | |
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Critical thinking and problem solving • Collaboration • Communication • Observation and Enquiry skills • Digital literacy • Cultural diversity and inclusion | | | | |
